Game Day Benefits

UB Athletics and the Blue & White Fund have established new pricing, priority seating and game day benefits for the upcoming 2019-20 basketball season. Any season ticket holder wishing to sit in the Blue & White Fund Priority Seating sections or obtain game day benefits must make a contribution to the Blue & White Fund Basketball Game Day Benefits Program.

Basketball Parking

Reserved parking passes for the 2019-20 season are available ONLY to current season ticket holders that have made a minimum contribution of $250 to the Basketball Game Day Benefits Program. Individual lot assignments will correspond with contribution levels.

Hospitality/Bull Pen Club Access

Game day hospitality in the Bull Pen Club is an exclusive benefit to those season ticket holders who sit in priority seats that make an additional $325 PER PERSON contribution on top of their already required per seat contribution. [All Courtside and Loge season ticket holders DO NOT need to make this additional per seat contribution]. This private hospitality area will be open one hour before tip-off and during halftime. It features complimentary food and beverage, TV's and amenities not available to the general public.

Courtside Seats & South Loge Seats

Experience an incredible game day experience that features first class amenities such as access to VIP parking, complimentary snack and beverage service and access to the Bull Pen Club [hospitality room]. Don't miss out on your chance to sit courtside – limited availability for this upcoming 2019-20 basketball season. For more information on courtside seats or the south loge seats contact Jeremy Applegate with the Blue & White Fund at 716-645-6832.

Please refer to the Basketball Game Day Benefits Chart below for specific giving levels and benefits.
